Executive Proclamation
State of South Dakota
Office of the Governor

Whereas, The state of South Dakota is the home of Alice DeBoer, and we are richer because Alice lives among us; and,

Whereas, Birthdays commemorate the first day of our lives, and we celebrate the birthdays of those we love as we recognize the joys and sorrows we have shared, the strength we have gained from the obstacles and hardships we have conquered and the small daily pleasures life offers; and,

Whereas, Alice was born November 8, 1906; and,

Whereas, Alice married John DeBoer in 1931 and was blessed with two daughters, Mary and Mae, who in turn gave them seven grandchildren and five great-grandchildren; and,

Whereas, Alice enjoys her flower gardens, plants, reading and traveling; and,

Whereas, Alice will observe her 100th Birthday with all the good wishes, fanfare and celebration such a milestone warrants, as her friends and relatives gather to honor her and celebrate her life and the camaraderie of the day; and it is fitting and proper for the Governor to make note of this milestone in the life of a woman who has lived an exemplary life for all to emulate:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim November 8, 2006, as in South Dakota.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Third Day of November in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Six.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
